NOW WE, THE MEMBERS, AGREE AS FOLLOWS:-

PART A INTERPRETATION OF OUR CONSTITUTION

1 SECTION 1 DEFINITIONS AND OTHER MATTERS

Words and Phrases

1.1 Words or phrases listed in Paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 (“Interpretation Rules”) of our Constitution shall have the same meaning in Part A, Part B and Part C of our Constitution and in each of the Schedules and in each of Annexes to our Constitution as is ascribed to each word or phrase in Paragraph 1 of Schedule 1 (“Interpretation Rules”) of our Constitution.

Interpretation Rules

1.2 The provisions of Paragraphs 2 to 10 of Schedule 1 (“Interpretation Rules”) of our Constitution shall apply to Part A, Part B and Part C of our Constitution and to each of the Schedules and in each of Annexes to our Constitution.

Effect of Delegation on Interpretation

1.3 Our Constitution provides that any power, discretion, determination, decision, consent, right, approval, judgement, prerogative, privilege, and so forth that our Constitution bestows upon the Chairman may be delegated in accordance with provisions of our Constitution by the Chairman to any person or any Office in our Party and such like and therefore during or for the period of such delegation our Constitution shall be read and construed as if the power, discretion, determination, decision, consent, right, approval, judgement, prerogative, privilege and so forth so delegated is or had been bestowed upon such person or such Office in our Party or such like as if the same were named in our Constitution in the Chairman’s stead.

The Intention to Create Enforceable Obligations

1.4 Our Constitution is intended to create enforceable obligations in accordance with its terms and conditions.

Public Domain

1.5 Our Constitution shall be and is in the public domain with effect from the 9 April 2010 so as to bind any person who, after such date, purports to contract with our Party or who purports to affix any Member of our Party (in a representative capacity or not) with personal liability for his or her alleged acts or omission or those of our Party or those of any of our other Members with actual or deemed actual knowledge of our Constitution's contents.

PART B THE MEMORANDUM OF OUR PARTY

2 SECTION 2 NAME AND COMPOSITION OF OUR PARTY

Our Party

2.1 We, the Members, in exercise of our inherent freedom of association, freedom of thought, freedom of belief, freedom of opinion, freedom of conscience, freedom of expression, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, freedom to hold private property and freedom of agreement, have come into association and are in association with each other to the extent created and or governed by our Constitution and to no further extent.

2.2 Our association is referred to in our Constitution as "our Party".

Our Party's Name

2.3 The official name of our Party is "THE BRITISH NATIONAL PARTY" and we are also referred to by our other name, our common name, as "The BNP."

Our Party's Members

2.4 We, the members of our Party ("the Members") are as follows:-

2.4.1 all Individual Members;

2.4.2 all British Homeland Branches and Groups;

2.4.3 all Overseas Branches and Groups;

2.4.4 the National Executive; and

2.4.5 the Individual Members' Association.

2.5 For the avoidance of doubt the Individual Members' Association, the Advisory Council and, whether British Homeland or Overseas, each Branch and each Group, is a distinct and separate association from that of our Party and only those of the same as are incorporated bodies are Members.

Our Party's Units

2.6 For the purposes of our Party's Financial Scheme only, the Units of our Party as shall be registered under such Financial Scheme are as follows:-

2.6.1 Party Central;

2.6.2 all Party Regions; and

2.6.3 any such others as the Chairman shall agree with the Electoral Commission from time to time to be eligible for registration.

3 SECTION 3 PURPOSES AND OBJECTIVES OF OUR PARTY

Political Party

3.1 Our Party shall, inter alia, act as a registered political party within the meaning of The Political Parties, Elections and Referendum Act 2000 ("the PPERA").

Statements of Principles

3.2 The primary political objectives of our Party are set out as statements of principles in Clauses 3.2.1 to 3.2.12 below and are together referred to in our Constitution as the "Principles of our Party".

3.2.1 Our Party is a party of British Nationalism, both ethnic and civic, and we are committed to the principle of national sovereignty in all our British Homeland affairs and of self determination and sovereignty in all Indigenous British affairs. We are pledged to the continued creation, fostering, maintenance and existence of a unity and of the integrity of the Indigenous British and of the government of the countries of England, Scotland and Wales and Northern Ireland, and of Eire which together, and as further expanded in Schedule 1 (“Interpretation Rules”), are referred to in this, our Constitution, as our “British Homeland”.

3.2.2 See Annex 3

3.2.3 We are pledged to stemming and reversing the immigration and migration of peoples into our British Homeland that has, without the express consent of the Indigenous British, taken place since 1948, and to restoring and maintaining, by legal changes, negotiation and consent, the Indigenous British as the overwhelming majority in the make up of the population of and expression of culture in each part of our British Homeland.

3.2.4 We are pledged to represent, advance and protect the collective national, environmental, political, racial, folkish, social, cultural, religious and economic interests of the Indigenous British and to the creation, fostering, maintenance and existence of permanent interests between the Indigenous British and the Civic British and between the Indigenous British and the Indigenous Peoples of Europe.

3.2.5 We assert as a permanent truth that the Indigenous British and the British Diaspora form a single brotherhood of peoples, and we are pledged therefore to adapt or create political, cultural, economic and military institutions with the aim of fostering the closest possible partnership between these peoples.

3.2.6 We are pledged to the maintenance of a private-enterprise economy operating within a broad framework of national economic policy. We are opposed to international monopoly capitalism and to laissez-faire free trade and to the free movement of labour, plant and capital across national borders. We assert as a permanent truth that social stability and contentment is best achieved by the many enjoying a personal stake in the assets and undertakings of their own nation. Accordingly, we believe that private property ownership, including where practicable in the means of production and distribution, should be encouraged and spread to as many members of the nation as possible. We recognise that finance exists to serve the nation and its industries, and not the other way around.

3.2.7 Whilst we respect the rights of individuals to hold and advance whatever political opinions they may have, we are implacably opposed to all totalitarianism, including Marxism in all its forms (including Communism, Leninism, Stalinism, Trotskyism, Maoism, political correctness and multi-culturalism), to National Socialism in all its forms (including Fascism and Nazism) to liberal-capitalism, including its globalised form, to Islamism and to European Federalism; all of which undermine the standards of living, the human and ecological welfare, the freedoms, and the national identities of all.

3.2.8 We stand for a policy of armed neutrality in international and military affairs. We are pledged to ensure that the lives of British servicemen and women throughout the world, and of our civilian population, are not put at unnecessary risk by the involvement of British forces in international disputes or affairs in which vital British interests are not at stake.

3.2.9 We are pledged to the enactment of a Bill of British Civic Rights, establishing within the boundaries of our British Homeland the absolute right of all British subjects to effective freedom of speech, thought, privacy, assembly, association and worship.

3.2.10 We are opposed to the unfettered exercise of undemocratic power by the mass media and by vested interest groups. We are pledged to curb such power, its abuse and misuse by, among other measures, the enactment of a statutory right of reply and by the creation of effective deterrents in the form of harsh but fair penalties, both criminal and civil, for corruption in the discharge of public affairs or in the discharge of a public office.

3.2.11 We favour a devolved, democratic system in which civic decisions are made at the most local level of government or community possible. We are pledged to extend and rejuvenate democratic government by, among other methods, the use of citizens' initiative referenda, and by returning to the Westminster Parliament the powers that have been appropriated by the European Commission. We are therefore pledged to withdraw the UK from the European Union.

3.2.12 We steadfastly and irrevocably assert as a matter of legal fact and of law, both in domestic and international law, that the Indigenous British and each component part of the Indigenous British are a distinct nation and an ethnic group in their own respective right, that the Indigenous British are the indigenous peoples of our British Homeland, both of land and of state, and accordingly that the Indigenous British, as with all indigenous peoples of land or of state throughout the world, are entitled to enjoy to the full measure and without hindrance or inhibition all rights granted or recognised in domestic or international law as enjoyable by an indigenous peoples, by a nation or by an ethnic group, both individually and collectively, and in particular all such rights as are set out in the United Nations Declaration of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples 2006.

3.3 The adoption by our Party of any policy or of any changes in our Party's policies, (such as may be needed to adapt to changing circumstances), are permissible only in so far as they do not run contrary to any of the aforementioned principles.

Refusal of Admission

4.10 The Chairman may at his or her sole discretion and without giving any reason therefore refuse the admission of any individual to membership of our Party as an Individual Member if he or she considers such refusal to be in the interest of our Party.

4.17 Upon admission as an Individual Member, an individual's continued membership of our Party as an Individual Member is, without prejudice to any other provision of our Constitution, conditional upon the Individual Member satisfying and continuing to satisfy at all times the "Conditions of Membership".

4.18 The "Conditions of Membership" in Clause 4.17 are that the Individual Member in question:-

4.20 The Chairman shall not be entitled to grant and may not grant any waiver under Clause 4.19 unless an Individual Member's application for such waiver is made within 2 calendar months of that Individual Members date of admission to membership of our Party.

Bound by our Constitution

4.21 Without prejudice to any other Clause of our Constitution each and every Member of our Party is a party to our Constitution and is bound by the terms and conditions of our Constitution as if he or she were a signatory to our Constitution.

4.22 Any party to our Constitution who is not a Member of our Party but subject to the burden of our Constitution agrees with our Party to act at all times on his or her own account and not on the account of any other person and such party agrees not act at any time in relation to or with our Party or to or with any part of our Party or any Member on behalf of or at the behest of or for the benefit of any other person and for the purposes of this Clause 4.22 and Clause 4.18.2 "benefit" means any form of benefit and irrespective of whether such benefit is for the commercial gain or profit of either the Individual Member or party in question or for any other person.

4.23 If the Chairman is of the opinion that it is in the legal interests of our Party, any party to our Constitution, including without limitation an Individual Member, shall, if requested to do so in writing by the Chairman forthwith do all such acts and things and sign or execute and deliver such documents as the Chairman shall require so as to give full effect to the provisions of Clause 4.21.

4.24 In the event that an Individual Member who becomes subject to Clause 4.23 fails to comply with the provisions of Clause 4.23 within a timescale prescribed by our Chairman his or her admission to membership of our Party shall be void ab initio.

4.25 For the avoidance of doubt each Member and each party to our Constitution is bound by our Constitution as amended or replaced from time to time.

Probationary Members.

4.26 Each Individual Member shall be a Probationary Member for 24 calendar months from the date of his or her actual admission to membership of our Party as an Individual Member.

4.27 A Probationary Member is an Individual Member who may have his or her membership of our Party terminated at the sole discretion of the Chairman.

4.28 A Probationary Member's membership of our Party shall terminate forthwith upon receipt by that Member of a written notice to that effect signed by or on behalf of the Chairman.

4.29 Examples of the circumstances when the Chairman would consider terminating the membership of our Party of any Probationary Member include but are not limited to circumstances:-

4.29.1 when the Chairman would consider refusal to admission to membership of our Party under Clause 4.10 ("Refusal of Admission");

4.29.2 as would warrant the suspension or expulsion of the Individual Member under Section 9 ("our Party's Disciplinary Procedures"); or 4.29.3 where under Clauses 4.48 ("Duty to Resign") the Individual Member would or would be deemed to be under a duty to resign.

4.30 A termination of membership of our Party under Clause 4.27 may be made without any obligation to refund any Subscription paid.

4.31 The membership of our Party of a Probationary Member may be suspended by the Chairman for such period of time as he or she shall require in order to make such enquiries as the Chairman deems necessary to determine whether or not to exercise his or her discretion under Clause 4.27.

4.32 Our Party's Disputes Procedures shall not apply to the termination by the Chairman of the membership of our Party of any Probationary Member.

Continuous Membership

4.33 "Continuous Membership" means an aggregate consecutive period of uninterrupted membership of our Party as an Individual Member.

4.34 Save as in the case of a suspension of a Probationary Member under Clause 4.31 and save as provided elsewhere in our Constitution a period of suspension of the membership of our Party of an Individual Member is a period of interrupted membership for the purposes of calculating an Individual Member's Continuous Membership.

Suspension for Non Payment of Subscription

4.35 In the event that any Subscription due from an individual as an Individual Member is not paid on its due date for payment the membership of our Party of that individual as an Individual Member shall be immediately and automatically suspended, the individual concerned shall be treated for all purposes under our Constitution as if that individual were not an Individual Member and without prejudice to the forgoing and without notice the individual shall cease to be able to enjoy any of the rights, benefits, goods, services or facilities that are associated with or derived from or depend upon membership as an Individual Member of our Party howsoever arising and of whatsoever nature.

4.36 An Individual Member whose membership of our Party has been suspended for non payment of a Subscription due under Clause 4.35 may have such suspension lifted automatically if fewer than three calendar months have passed since the Subscription's due date for payment by the payment of the Subscription due.

4.37 Any suspension of the membership of our Party of an Individual Member under Clause 4.35 which has been lifted pursuant to Clause 4.36 shall be disregarded in the calculation of an Individual Member's Continuous Membership and the period of such lifted suspension shall count towards an Individual Member's Continuous Membership of our Party.

4.38 Subject to Clause 4.39 an individual whose membership of our Party as an Individual Member was terminated by reason of non payment of a required Subscription or by reason of resignation prior to the date of the adoption of the 12.1 edition of our Constitution shall be entitled to have his or her membership of our Party as an Individual Member restored as if such termination or resignation had not taken place (other than in respect of his or her old membership number) if within six calendar months of 9 April 2010 he or she pays the Subscription due and all subsequent Subscriptions that would have been due from that individual but for the termination or resignation of his or her membership up to and including the date of restoration of his or her membership of our Party as an Individual Member or such other sum as the Chairman shall determine from time to time.

4.39 The Chairman may at his or her sole discretion and without giving any reason therefore refuse the restoration of the membership of an individual under Clause 4.38 if he or she considers refusal to be in the interests of our Party.

4.40 Examples of when the Chairman would consider the refusal of restoration of the membership of an individual to membership of our Party as an Individual Member to be in the interests of our Party include but are not limited to the circumstances when the Chairman would consider refusal to admission to membership of our Party of any individual as an Individual Member to be in the interests of our Party under Clause 4.10.

Suspension under our Party's Disputes Procedures.

4.41 Only a period of suspension of membership of our Party imposed upon an Individual Member pursuant to our Party's Disputes Procedures that is three months or less in length shall be disregarded in the calculation of an Individual Member's Continuous Membership and a period of such imposed suspension of more than three months in length shall be regarded as a break in the continuity of membership for the purposes of determining an Individual Member's Continuous Membership.

4.42 The Chairman at his or her sole discretion may waive the application of Clause 4.41 to any Individual Member.

Suspension During Application for Waiver.

4.43 If an Individual Member makes an application to the Chairman for a waiver under:-

4.43.1 Clause 4.19 ("within two months of admission to membership"); or

4.43.2 Clause 4.53 ("duty to resign");

the membership of our Party of that individual as an Individual Member shall be immediately and automatically suspended, the individual concerned shall be treated for all purposes under our Constitution as if that individual were not an Individual Member and without prejudice to the forgoing and without notice the individual shall cease to be able to enjoy any of the privileges, rights, benefits, goods, services or facilities that are associated with or derived from or depend upon membership as an Individual Member of our Party howsoever arising and of whatsoever nature.

4.44 Any suspension of the membership of our Party of an Individual Member under Clause 4.43 shall be automatically lifted in the event that the applied for waiver is granted.

4.45 Any period of suspension of the membership of our Party of an Individual Member under Clause 4.43 which has been lifted pursuant to Clause 4.44 shall not be taken in to account in the calculation of an Individual Member's Continuous Membership and the period of such lifted suspension shall count as a period of interrupted membership in the calculation of an Individual Member's Continuous Membership of our Party.

4.46 The Chairman at his or her sole discretion may waive the application of Clause 4.45 to any Individual Member.

Resignation From and Termination of Membership

4.47 An individual's membership of our Party as an Individual Member unless brought to an end pursuant to any other provision of this Constitution, shall continue until such membership of our Party is brought to an end by:-

4.47.1 an Individual Member submitting his or her resignation as an Individual Member under this Clause 4.47.1 in writing to the Chairman, when upon receipt by the Chairman such resignation shall take immediate effect;

4.47.2 an Individual Member making a verbal announcement of his or her resignation as an Individual Member in the presence of an Official of our Party and in the presence of witnesses whereupon such resignation shall take immediate effect;

4.47.3 an Individual Member resigning by default by reason that a Subscription payable by Individual Member is not paid within three calendar months of its due date for payment, whereupon such resignation by default shall take place forthwith upon the expiry of such three calendar month period; or 4.47.4 an Individual Member's application for the grant of a waiver under Clause 4.19 ("within two months of admission to membership"); or Clause 4.53 ("duty to resign") being declined, whereupon such resignation shall take effect on the date such waiver is declined.

Duty to Resign

4.48 Any Individual Member who subsequent to his or her admission to membership of our Party becomes aware that he or she breaches his or her Conditions of Membership of our Party or any other term or condition of our Constitution shall become under a duty to tender forthwith in writing his or her resignation as an Individual Member, specifying the duty to resign has arisen and specifying the breach, in writing to the Chairman.

4.49 An Individual Member who shall become under a duty to resign under Clause 4.48 but who fails to forthwith tender his or her resignation shall for all purpose be deemed to have resigned as an Individual Member on the day upon which the duty to resign arose.

4.50 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 4.49, an Individual Member shall be deemed to have become aware for the purposes of Clause 4.49 on the first date upon which an Individual Member acting reasonable would or ought to have become aware that a duty to tender one's resignation had arisen.

4.51 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 4.50, an Individual Member acting reasonably would or ought to have become aware of any change to our Constitution within seven days of the publication of notice of that change by any means permissible under our Constitution.

meaning of Clause 4.48.

4.57 Clauses 4.49 to 4.52 shall apply to the duty to revoke in like manner as such Clauses apply to the duty to resign as if the references to Clauses 4.48 therein were a reference to Clause 4.55, the reference to duty to resign therein were a reference to the duty to revoke, and any reference to resignation therein were a reference to revocation.

4.58 The Chairman may provided he or she is in receipt of an application for the grant of a waiver contemporaneously with the receipt of notice given under Clause 4.55 (“duty to revoke”), if the Chairman thinks it is in the interests of our Party and at his or her sole discretion, waive the requirement upon an Individual Member who is not a Voting Member to comply with the Adherence Criteria in full in respect of any changes in the Principles of our Party or to the Nationalist Statements after the date of that Individual Member’s Statement of Adherence, actual or deemed, in connection with :-

5.29 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 5.22 to 5.28 the limits on the authority of any agent or purported agent of any Official of our Party including the Chairman as set out in Clause 5.28 are and shall be implied, if not already expressly set out, into the terms and conditions of any agency

5.30 Any purported relationship of principal and agent created or purported to be created expressly or impliedly in breach of Clauses 5.22 to 5.29 shall be void ab initio.

5.31 In the event that notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 5.22 to 5.30 a person is deemed to be the agent of our Party or of an Association Member or to possess the ostensible authority of an agent in respect of our Party or of an Association Member the provisions of Clauses 5.28 and 5.29 shall apply to that agency or that ostensible authority as applicable as if the words "our Party" or "an Association Member" as appropriate were inserted therein instead of the words "any Official of our Party including the Chairman".

5.32 For the purposes of Clauses 5.22 to 5.30 "purported" means purported or alleged by any person.

Limits on and Exclusion of Liability on our Party

5.33 Notwithstanding any other provision of our Constitution neither our Party nor any party to our Constitution; or any Individual Member, or any other Member or any Official of our Party, including without limitation the Chairman, seeks in our Constitution to limit or exclude any liability which cannot by law be excluded or limited, including without limitation for death or personal injury.

5.38 No party to our Constitution and in particular no Individual Member in becoming a party to our Constitution thereby agreed to accept personal liability for the acts or omissions of another person whether or not those acts or omissions are also deemed to be the acts and omissions of our Party or of an Association Member and all liability of that nature lies outside the remit and the extent of the association formed by or agreed upon by our Constitution.

5.39 Without prejudice to the generality of Clause 5.38 every party to our Constitution agrees to accept and to treat the limitation on the extent of our association and on the obligations of each party to our Constitution as set out in Clause 5.38 as legally binding for all purposes upon that party and in pursuance thereof each party to our Constitution agrees to and does so waive any alleged right or claim (if any) he or she might otherwise allegedly have howsoever arising and of whatsoever nature against a party to our Constitution in respect of the acts or omissions of another party to our Constitution.

5.40 Pursuant to Clause 5.38 each party to our Constitution agrees to accept as the only Individual Members of our Party or as the only parties to our Constitution as are capable of acting as defendants in a representative capacity for or on behalf of our Party or of an Association Member in any legal proceedings to be those Individual Members or parties to our Constitution actually directly responsible or culpable for the acts or omissions that are the subject matter of any alleged right of claim or action that the relevant party to our Constitution has or purports to have.

6.8 For the avoidance of doubt incorporation is in the interests of our Party if and only if the purpose of incorporation is to enable any or all parts of our Party to enjoy the benefits of incorporation in circumstances where such incorporation does not involve any element of personal or private gain or enrichment for any person including without limitation any Individual Member or for any Official of our Party.

6.9 The Chairman may at any time, if he or she is of the opinion that it is in the interest of our Party, restructure or reorganise our Party into any like form or similar form as would apply in the event that all or any part of our Party, including without limitation our Party, any Office of our Party, any Member of our Party or any category of the Members of our Party, were incorporated and Clause 6.6 shall be read and construed accordingly.

As such each Individual Member (including those who have been disciplined or expelled) agrees and states with the intent that he or she shall not seek any external remedy or review of any decision by the Conduct Committee or Disputes Appeal Officer or the procedures.

9.3 The Disputes Appeal Officer shall have the same ability to be the determinator of fact in respect of any disciplinary matter within his or her jurisdiction as is enjoyed by the Chairman as if the reference to the Chairman in Clause 6.10 and 6.12 were a reference to the Disputes Appeal Officer.

This appeal will be considered only on the papers submitted and there is no right to a hearing in person.

9.9 The Individual Member concerned should, as soon as practically possible be sent in writing a description of the alleged offence.

9.10 The Conduct Committee will be composed of three Officers of our Party and will be appointed and dismissed at the discretion of our

EXPANDED DEFINITIONS

1 Subject to paragraphs 2 to 6 of this Schedule 2 in our Constitution the following words or expressions broadly have the meaning for our Party's purposes the meaning ascribe as follows:-

"British Diaspora" means all those persons spread throughout the world who identify themselves as principally being of British, English, Irish, Ulster Scot, Scottish, or Welsh ancestry including without limitation those who identify or refer to themselves as culturally and by descent as being Anglo Saxon or Anglo Celt;

"Civic British" means an individual, together with all other like individuals, who holds or is entitled to hold a passport issued by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland or by the Eire; who is in residence legally in our British Homeland; and irrespective of the race, skin colour, national or ethnic origins or any combination of the same of such individual; is an individual who:-

(a) identifies himself or herself, as his or her primary or overarching loyalty, as loyal to our British Homeland and to the Indigenous British;

(b) adheres to or accepts the hegemony of the values, traditions, cultures, histories, languages, institutions, ways of life, laws, customs; manners, religions, idiosyncrasies and so forth of the Indigenous British in our British Homeland; and

(c) accepts and recognises the existence of the Indigenous British as a distinct people and the entitlement, among other matters, of the Indigenous British to the full enjoyment of all rights as are referred to the 12th Principle of the Principles of our Party (Clause 3.2.12 "Statement of Principles");

AND for the avoidance of doubt in the case of an individual who is not by descent or origin Indigenous British in determining whether that individual is Civic British it is irrelevant whether such individual or any of his or her forbearers entered into our British Homeland before, during or after 1948;

"Indigenous British" means together that group of nations and or communities historically indigenous to our British Homeland, being the first and aboriginal peoples of our British Homeland, and which group consists of the English, the Irish, the Ulster Scots, the Scots, and the Welsh racial groups and any sub sects of the same; and which racial groups it is believed by many are referred to as the British and Irish ethnic groups in the ethnic group categories used for the purposes of the 2001 Census for England and Wales; and “Indigenous Peoples of Europe” means all and any European racial groups historically indigenous to Europe and who have or had a homeland in Europe; in each case being that part of Europe that the racial group is historically indigenous to; whether or not such racial group is currently in occupation in whole or in part of such homeland.

2 For the purposes of our constitution national or ethnic racial group means as it means under the Race Relations Act 1976 a group composed of people whose racial origins lie in the racial group in question and who obtained membership of the racial group at birth by reason of direct linear and ancestral descent and in respect of which the issue of a person’s place of birth or citizenship is irrelevant.

3 For the purpose of our Constitution the phrase “historically indigenous” means those racial groups whose collective, common or shared ancestors are continuously traceable or are bona fide believed by members of such racial groups to be continuously traceable back in the case of:-

3.1 the Indigenous British, in our British Homeland before the commencement of the time of legal memory; and

3.2 the Indigenous Europeans, in Europe to or before the so called European Dark Ages.

4 The definition of the Indigenous British set out in this Schedule 2 is intended to have legal efficacy but for our Party’s purposes it is irrelevant whether such definition does or does not have legal efficacy in our British Homeland and accordingly our Party reserves absolutely the right to identify or describe the Indigenous British by any and all means as our Party shall see fit in exercise of our Individual Members’ inherent freedom of conscience, thought, belief, expression, opinion and or speech.

5 Our Party reserves absolutely the right to change the legal language, terminology and or concepts used in this Schedule 2 to describe the peoples our Constitution refers to as the Indigenous British to take into account developments, changes or disputes over or in the use or application of legal terminology, language, or concepts, in domestic or in international law, with the intent of creating greater legal efficacy in our definition of the Indigenous British, but for the avoidance of doubt neither the legal status of the Indigenous British nor that which makes a perceived racial group a racial group at law, whether in domestic or in international law, is, for our Party purposes, determined by the correct application of such legal language, terminology or concepts but by the fact that the racial group in question, including the Indigenous British, has or enjoys or is perceived or believed by members of such racial group to have or to enjoy a collective, common or shared ancestry, characteristics, identities, histories, languages, traditions, religions, homeland, cultures, values, community, institutions, laws, ownership and or inheritance.

6 Our Party respects and acknowledges, as an absolute and exclusive right from which there can be no lawful derogation, the right of the members of each and every racial group, in particular all racial nations and all ethnic communities, to determine the membership of their own racial group, the right of such members to hold differing opinions and views on such matter and the right of such members to hold such differing opinions and views free from any persecution or harassment whether emanating from a state, its institutions or from private individuals or organisations in opposition to such opinions or views, and accordingly whether a particular individual is or is not a member of the Indigenous British is a matter for the Indigenous British and the Indigenous British alone.

INDIGENOUS BRITISH, CIVIC BRITISH, BRITISH NATIONALIST AND/OR OTHER NATIONALIST STATEMENTS

1. The English gave their name to England, the land of the English, not the other way round and while a Civic British identity can be claimed or ascribed without reference to ethnicity, being Indigenous British, that is English, Scottish, Welsh, Irish or an Ulster-Scot, is not a question of place of birth, but question of ancestral descent at birth.
2. The Indigenous British, the Britons, and their various sub groups, like all indigenous peoples throughout the world, are entitled to self associate to the exclusion of others, if and when they so choose.
3. The state of being indigenous, being a matter of descent and inherited culture rather than of residence, we recognise that members of the British Diaspora born and resident abroad remain Britons.

ANNEX 2

CODE OF CONDUCT

1 All persons occupying any positions of authority within our Party and thereby authorised to issue directives to the Members for the performance of tasks for our Party are expected to communicate such directives with courtesy and dignity, mindful of the fact that our Party is an organisation, not of conscripts, but of volunteers who for the most part give their services unpaid and are able to leave our Party at any time they wish.

2 All Members when engaged in party tasks are expected to act in accordance with whatever directives may be issued to them by the senior party official present, providing that such directives are reasonable, lawful and in compliance with the Constitution of our Party.

3 All Individual Members when present on party activities and functions are expected to be of clean and tidy appearance.

4 All Members are expected at all times to conduct themselves in a manner that will bring credit upon our Party and to refrain from any acts, whether from a party political or private motive and whether political or private in nature, which are likely to bring our Party into disrepute.

Proscriptions

5 The Chairman may proscribe individuals, organisations or publications which are so hostile to our Party, or whose views and/or behaviour are so likely to bring discredit upon our Party, that Members should have no contact with them.

6 Such a hostile individual, publication or group is thenceforth regarded as a rotten apple and proscription is the means by which they are prevented from contaminating others. Not only are the proscribed barred from attending party functions and activities, but Members are barred from attending events organised by them and barred from sharing platforms with them, distributing, promoting or advertising literature and electronic media produced by or in support of them, and promoting events at which they are known or – in the opinion of our Chairman – likely to be attending. Members are also barred from commenting on websites, social media and forums which, in the opinion of the Chairman, support a proscribed individual or group. Members are barred from allowing their name to be used in such a way as indicates support for a proscribed individual or group. Breach of a proscription by a Member will be regarded as a disciplinary offence.

7 Proscriptions shall come into effect on publication on the Party website (www.bnp.org.uk) and remain in force until further notice. A full list of proscribed individuals and groups appears on the Party's website.

8 No Member is permitted to present as our Party policy any political viewpoint that has not been adopted as such. Any Individual Member, when presenting any viewpoint which differs from the adopted policy of our Party, must stress that that viewpoint reflects only their own private opinion and is not part of any policy adopted by our Party. No other Member may present a viewpoint that differs from the policy adopted by our Party.

9 Every Member has the right to express criticism or dissent on matters internal to our Party and to work, within the framework of the Constitution, to achieve internal change within our Party.

10 Individual Members are expected to take concerns to their local or regional organiser and they in turn, should a quick resolution not be possible, to take it on to the National Executive. Further, an AC Member so approached must raise the subject at the next National Executive meeting or in communication with the Chairman and other AC Members.

11 An AC Member or Official of our Party or of a Branch who airs criticism or dissent publicly or to subordinate members without first exhausting the proper channels shall be guilty of a serious disciplinary offence. As a general rule, good news should be passed to subordinate Individual Members while problems and criticisms should only be passed to the more senior Officials of our Party.

12 The spreading of false or malicious rumours shall be considered an offence against this Code of Conduct. So too shall be the deliberate causing of disruption to the working of our Party.

13 No Member shall transmit by any means – written, verbal or electronic – to another person or organisation matters that are internal to our Party unless prior permission has been given by a member of the National Executive or a Regional Organiser not on the National Executive.

14 No Member shall call any activity or meeting beyond their position of authority. Any such call shall be considered an offence against this Code of Conduct.

15 Non-compliance with any part of our Constitution is an offence against this Code of Conduct.

ANNEX 6 INDEX OF CHANGES MADE: 14.4a to 15.

At a British National Party General Members Meeting, held in the North West on 08/10/20, 98% of the voting membership participating, following the steps set out in the BNP constitution:

A/ Ratified that the current in force version of the BNP Constitution was 14.4a as published on the BNP website at the date of the GMM

B/ Passed the following motions:

MOTION 1:

This meeting, having confirmed that version 14.4a (as published at bnp.org.uk) is the current BNP Constitution, moves to make the following changes:

17.1.3 Section 8 ("Our Party's National Executive Council");

17.1.4 Section 17 ("Revisions to Our Constitution")

Are no longer protected parts of our Constitution.

For the avoidance of doubt these improvements allow the Chairman, if he or she thinks it in the interests of our Party, in particular in the interests of the functional efficiency of our Party, is now entitled to amend any Clause, Schedule or Annex of our Constitution except:

17.1.1 Section 3 ("Purposes and Objectives of our Party");

17.1.2 Section 7 ("Elections to our Party's Leadership");

MOTION 2:

We have vacancies on our National Executive Committee, as many regions do not meet the rigid criteria to become regional officials. All our members deserve regional representatives. To facilitate this and to allow a functioning NEC this meeting moves that:

8.1.3 One Regional Organiser, elected by the Regional Council, from each of the eleven European Parliamentary regions.

And

8.1.4 One Regional Chairman, elected by the Regional Council, from each of the eleven European Parliamentary regions.

Be replaced with:

8.1.3 One Regional Representative from each of the 11 geographic regions (formally European Regions) that is appointed by majority vote of the Administration Committee.

Nb* The Chairman of the GMM proposed an amendment to motion 2. That amendment was seconded and voted through so the final version of motion 2 now reads:

8.1.3 Up to a maximum of one Regional Representative from each of the 11 geographic regions (formally European Regions) that is appointed upon gaining a majority vote of the Administration Committee (should an appropriate qualifying member apply)

Nb For the avoidance of doubt the above amendment was made to ensure that the Administration Committee is not obliged to fill each vacancy if no one wishes to become an NEC member for their region or if the Administration Committee decide by simple majority that the candidate is not suitable.

In summary the above changes were made and therefore this current version of our Party's Constitution is now amended accordingly and published here as VERSION 15.

NB This current 15th Version of the BNP Constitution has a watermark with edition 14.4a through it and this is a software glitch and will be removed ASAP. This note is for the avoidance of doubt as to the current version.
