British children deserve better

BNP campaigner who exposed the Rotherham
grooming cover-up

Marlene Guest
BNP legend

Islamist rape gangs are targeting vulnerable young girls in communities up and down our country. While Rotherham and other northern towns have hit the headlines, these vile crimes are taking place in every town with a considerable Muslim population.

"The horrific nature of these crimes is unimaginable and the level of betrayal of the people of Rotherham by the Labour Party staggering!"
Declared Adam Walker, Leader of the British National Party.

"The BNP demands criminal prosecutions. The paedophile gangs must be hunted down and caged, and those in a position of authority who turn a blind eye to the suffering of our young girls must face the full force of the law."

Labour councillors and others are ignoring these crimes. Resignations are not enough, the BNP is demanding criminal charges be brought against the paedophiles, and all those on the councils, in the social services and the police who neglect their duty.

Will you stand up for justice – are you with us?

"The council, social workers and the police failed our children. Being a BNP member gave me the support I needed to help those poor children and expose the truth. Help us put our people first, because no one else will!"
